16-YEAR-OLD BOY IN "BAD" CLASS

Wilbur Patterson, of Mickle Case Notoriety, Sent to Training School.

Wilbur Patterson, of 64 New Jersey avenue northwest, sixteen years old, who won newspaper notoriety through the revelation of a fake story to the effect that he saw James Smith, the assassin of Morris Bernet, leave the store of William Mickle directly after the murder of the seventh street tobaccoist, was yesterday sentenced to the National Training School for Boys by Judge William H. De Lacy on a charge of larceny.

When previously arraigned as incorrigible Wilbur was believed by Judge De Lacy to be mentally unbalanced. He was sent to the Government Hospital for the Insane for observation and it was later reported that he was mentally normal.
He was then placed on probation. Yesterday Wilbur was brought before the tribunal charged with the theft of a one-dollar bill and a stickpin from a Columbia road residence. The person from whom the articles were stolen refused to appear against the boy.

Wilbur entered the residence with a local tuner, to whom he had been appointed for the purpose of repairing a roof. While passing through a bedroom the boy is said to have stolen the articles.

A Wealth of Spring Flowers, sweet peas, violets, etc. $1.00, 10c and 15c.

IRISH WILL CELEBRATE.

Robert Emmet's Birthday to Be Observed Next Sunday.

The 14th anniversary of the birth of Robert Emmet, the Irish patriot and martyr, will be celebrated at the National Theatre next Sunday evening with a musical and literary programme interpreted with addresses under the auspices of the United Irish Societies of the District for the benefit of St. Ann's Infant Asylum.

Hugh J. Murray, chairman, and a committee of forty are making arrangements for the celebration, assisted by William J. McAvoy, chairman of the publicity committee, and P. T. Moran, J. Frank O'Mara, P. J. Halligan, Patrick P. Carr, and others. It is planned to make the celebration the most notable since the death of the District have been observing the natal day of the famous Irish Protestant.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases.
But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis, where the eczema germs are lodged.

This quality of penetrating probably explains the tremendous success of the well known Blood Purifier remedy, all of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. are compounded in D. D. D.
Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recom-

THREE WIVES ARE FREED.

Chief Justice Claiborne Grants Divorce Decrees to Capital Women.

Chief Justice Claiborne yesterday granted absolute divorces to three Washington wives.

The first decree was granted to Mrs.
Mary E. Bell, who contended that her husband, Samuel B. Bell, deserted her the day following their marriage. Mrs.
Bell said that several years after the marriage she saw her husband leaving a theater with several female companions. She says that she followed her husband to the home of the co-respondent named in the petition. On the way, she says, her husband and his companions stopped at a saloon. The custody of the four-year-old daughter was given to Mrs. Bell.

Mrs. Minnie Kates was granted an absolute divorce from Israel Kates. The wife was granted the custody of the two children and awarded $5 per week alimony. An absolute decree was also granted to Lillian A. Russell from Andrew Russell.

WIFE CHARGES BIGAMY.
Mary V. Jackson Says Husband Would Not Forego No. 2.

Through Attorney E. L. Gies, Mary V. Jackson yesterday filed suit in the District Supreme Court for absolute divorce from her husband, Dean C. Jackson, a chauffeur, on the ground of bigamy. Mrs. Jackson was married to the chauffeur April 24, 1910.

According to the petition, Jackson went to Baltimore in January, 1906, and married Edna Evans. During the summer of that year, Mrs. Jackson maintains, a reconciliation was effected with her husband, and she returned to her home. No. 2.
Mrs. Jackson contends that the chauffeur has failed to keep the agreement.

MORE MAINE RELICS TO SUPPLY DEMAND

Shells from Historic Battle Ship Will Be Brought from Havana.

That a large number of shells recovered from the hull of the battle ship Maine will be brought to this city on the cruiser Birmingham was announced at the Navy Department yesterday afternoon.

It was found that the relics brought to this country on the coiler Leonidas had been insufficient to fill the demands made by survivors of the ill-fated battle ship, patriotic societies, and municipalities.
The relics which the Leonidas unloaded several weeks ago are not suitable for the purposes for which they are desired.

The majority of the municipalities and patriotic societies have applied for guns from the wrecked battle ship to be placed in public squares and around monuments.
Very few guns were recovered, and not more than one-third of those applied for can be supplied.

As a result the societies will have to content themselves with pieces of the ship's armor, crockery, silverware, etc. More than 2,000 applications for relics of the Maine have been received at the Navy Department, and the majority of the application blanks have not even been mailed out. It is not likely that more than one-third of those applying for relics will have their wants gratified.

The cruiser Birmingham also will convey the bones of the men who died in the wreck to this city for burial in Anderson National Cemetery. It will be several months before they arrive, however, as the Birmingham is now stationed at Guantanamo, and will start for the United States until after the "funeral" of the Maine in the Atlantic Ocean.

The bones of the sailors will be conveyed by the North Carolina as far as Hampton Roads, where they will be transferred to the Birmingham and brought to Washington.

Chase Home-grown Spring Flowers.
The finest sweet peas, violets, jonquils, tulips, etc., fresh cut, at 10c, 15c, 25c.

Readings for the Blind.

A. Claude D. Murray, soprano; Miss E.
Louise Patterson, contralto; Miss Catharine E. Greedy, pianist; Miss Alice J.
Cantlin, recitations; Mr. J. Francis Ger-miller, pianist.

JULIA MARLOWE RECOVERS.

Actress leaves for the South to Rejoin Her Company.

Julia Marlowe, the actress, wife of E.
H. Sothers, who for the last week has been a patient at the Episcopal Hospital, and Throat Hospital, left that institution yesterday. During Miss Marlowe's recent engagement at the Halcro, she was attacked by a throat affection which required a minor surgical operation, which was performed last Monday.

She has fully recovered and left yesterday afternoon for the South to rejoin her company.

LOSES $10,000 DAMAGE SUIT.

Joseph Byrne Sought Relief in Court for Injuries.

Joseph Byrne, by his next friend, Patrick J. Byrne, was denied $10,000 damages by a jury in Circuit Court No. 1 yesterday for alleged personal injuries sustained at the hands of David J. Keppel during an altercation which occurred on a vacant lot at North Capitol street and New York avenue July 4, 1907.

A crowd of boys, according to the testimony, were shooting giant firecrackers on the lot on the day of the alleged injuries when Keppel, who owns a stable adjoining the lot, warned the youngsters to desist. The fight ensued, during which brickbats, baseball bats, and cobble stones were brought into play. In escaping the mad mob of youngsters, Keppel is said to have tapped Byrne on the head with a hammer, seriously injuring him.

WOULD EXTEND CAR SYSTEM.

Access by W. R. & E. Line to American University Is Urged.

At a hearing yesterday the District Commissioners were urged to support the bill now before Congress providing for extension of the car system to the Washington Railway and Electric Company so as to afford access to the American University. The bill provides for the establishment of the proposed railway line along the line of the Capital Traction Company in Calvert street, across Calvert street bridge, and thence by way of Cleveland avenue, Thirtieth street, Massomb street and Massomchamps avenue to the District line.

Those who addressed the Commissioners on the subject were Bishop Earl Crawford, of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Bishop Alfred Harding, of the Protestant Episcopal Church; Franklin Hamilton, president of the American University, and Aldie R. Browne, a member of the board of trustees of the university.

Lecture on Fly Swatting.

Two lectures on the menace of the fly to the community were delivered yesterday at the Pastime theater, before a large crowd of children. One hundred and fifty youngsters signified their intention of joining the "swat the fly" army.

The lectures were given by E. P.
Covell, of the Franklin Institute, of Philadelphia, and Richard B. Watson, secretary of the American Civic Association. Both speakers illustrated their lectures with motion pictures.

The winners of the essay contest were Walter E. Smoot, Joseph Naiman, and Marie Martin. Next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock another lecture will be given in the theater.

'07 LOOKS TOWARD '13.

Class Reunion Plans of Normal No.
2 for Inaugural Year.

The fourth annual reunion of the class of 1907 of Normal School No. 2 was held Friday evening at the Cafe Martin. In view of the fact that next year is the inaugural year, it was suggested that efforts be made to have present at the 1913 reunion those members who are married and living in distant cities. A committee was appointed to consider the matter and report to the president. Appropriate souvenirs were distributed during the evening, and a buffet luncheon was served.

Those present were J. Maria Saunders, class president; Miss J. B. Cole, vice president; Samuel D. Matthews, treasurer, and Misses Maude Fleming, Kenneth Hunt, Hallie Fisher, Marion Sumner, Edna Murray, Ellen Lee, Florence Stokes, Naomi Lewis, Esther Middleton, Janie Cole, Rae Cornish, Isabel Wood, Dr. and Mrs.

Estate Left to James Conroy.

The entire estate of George Murray, with the exception of a $50 bequest made to D. J. McInerney, is left to James Conroy in a will dated December 27, 1911, which was filed for probate yesterday.

California, Nevada, and Texas were the only States in which qualification was asked last year.
